

LA NINA FAVOURS REVELSTOKE MOUNTAIN RESORT WITH 31CM OF SNOWFALL!

Saturday January 14, 2012 – Revelstoke, British Columbia – An incredible snow storm has targeted Revelstoke Mountain Resort bringing a whopping 31cm of snowfall in less than 24hrs! Conditions are prime as the snow continues to fall through the evening with a week-long forecast of snow ahead according to Environment Canada. Nearing a 200cm base and 550cm of snowfall to date, Revelstoke Mountain Resort offers incredible deep, natural snow conditions that rival any ski resort in North America!

The storm is a welcomed addition to snowmaking efforts that commenced earlier this week at the base for the new Turtle Creek Beginner Area and Tube Park. With heavy snowfall accumulating right down to the village base, the Tube Park is ready to gear up with operations commencing this weekend.
