

Statement from Revelstoke Mountain Resort

For Immediate Release:

Tuesday, March 16, 2010, Revelstoke, BC: Revelstoke Mountain Resort, Selkirk Tangiers Heli Skiing and our parent company Northland Properties Corporation in Vancouver would like to recognize all of our staff that participated in the Boulder Mountain avalanche emergency response this past weekend. From our community and the resort, we thank you for sharing your expertise and leadership and recognize your significant contribution made to assist in this multi-agency rescue.

To have a professionally qualified emergency response team available for our own operations at Revelstoke Mountain Resort and Selkirk Tangiers Heli Skiing is essential, to have those resources available to the community and region around us is an asset beyond words. We sincerely thank you for putting your lives on the line when others needed you.

We would also like to offer our condolences to the families of the two Alberta men who were victims of the Boulder Mountain avalanche. We are saddened by their deaths and we offer our heartfelt sympathies during this difficult time.
