

WINTER ISN'T OVER AT REVELSTOKE MOUNTAIN RESORT - 28CM OF SNOW IN 24HRS

Wednesday April 10, 2013 - Revelstoke, British Columbia - Though it may be April, Revelstoke Mountain Resort is seeing the typical powder dumps that spring can bring. 28cm of snow fell since 4pm yesterday resulting in fantastic powder conditions. Snow continued to fall on the slopes as the lifts shut down for the day and with the forecast showing the temperature band to drop even lower on the mountain overnight, conditions tomorrow should be primed for another day of incredible skiing and riding. A total of 69cm of snow has fallen in the last 7 days at Revelstoke Mountain Resort making the last turns of the ski season some of the best as the final day approaches on Sunday April 14, 2013. Revelstoke Mountain Resort has seen a total of 1122cm of snowfall to date this season.
