

GREAT SNOW CONDITIONS AND MARCH FAMILY FUN AT REVELSTOKE MOUNTAIN RESORT

Week of: February 18-24, 2013

CONDITIONS:

30cm in the last 7 days at Revelstoke Mountain Resort has made for some fantastic skiing and riding, especially with the ideal skiing temperatures and sunshine over this past week. More snow is in the forecast for later this week from Thursday through to Sunday. With a base of 196cm and 841cm of snowfall to date, Revelstoke Mountain Resort heads into a promising March that is known for big spring snowfalls and late-season powder days.

EVENTS:

Guests can enjoy new features in Turtle Creek including beginner night skiing and a four-feature rail line that is also open through to the evenings. Night skiing in the beginner area and rail park operates in the evenings along with the Turtle Creek Tube Park on Friday and Saturday until 8pm and Wednesday, Thursday, and Sunday until 5:30pm. Season Pass Holders and regular Day Ticket Holders have unlimited access to both the beginner area and rail park both daytime and during evening operations at no charge while those looking to come only for the night fun can purchase a Magic Carpet ticket to use both areas (tube park tickets are additional). The Turtle Creek area is a new development that opened January last season and is located directly in the village at the base of Revelstoke Mountain Resort. Kids ROC après-ski activity nights are also available weekly from Wednesday to Sunday, 5:00pm-7:30pm with programming geared towards children ages 6-12 such as snow tubing, frisbee golf, games and crafts plus dinner.
